Employee Exposure and Illness Guidance

If symptoms develop, do not come to work and immediately call your supervisor and MOD.

Low Risk Exposure	Increased Risk Work Exposure	Exposure via Household Contacts	Employee is Sick
	This includes patient care activities that involve possible airway exposure or aerosolization of secretions while either staff or patient is unmasked	COVID-19 Testing for household contacts highly encouraged	COVID-19 Testing for healthcare workers will be prioritized Do not come to work Employee Test
		↓
		While test is pending: Wear a surgical mask at work
Work as scheduled watch for fever, cough, and shortness of breath		For 14 days after last known increased risk exposure, work as scheduled watch for fever, cough, and shortness of breath.	Follow Public Health instructions regarding quarantine and self isolation. Wear mask upon RTW when all symptoms resolve	Work as scheduled watch for fever, cough, and shortness of breath.
	Wear a surgical mask at work for 14 days after last known increased risk exposure	Test of Household contact
	Work as scheduled watch for fever, cough, and shortness of breath.	Work as scheduled watch for fever, cough, and shortness of breath.	EAGLE COUNTY PARAMEDIC SERVICES	