

EMS IS IN CRISIS! A state & national problem

NEWS

Colorado paramedics enduring expensive delays in ambulance deliveries

Emergency service providers are waiting years for delivery of ambulances that previously took only months as manufacturers grappled with supply chain challenges

Ambulance shortage compounded by EMS dearth in multiple states

Paige Twenter - Wednesday, January 18th, 2023

Colorado paramedics experiencing burnout

While the pandemic has taken its toll on the entire healthcare field, the paramedic turnover rate is higher than doctors and nurses combined.

Author: 9news.com

Published: 8:02 AM MST February 15, 2022

Updated: 8:02 AM MST February 15, 2022

In far-west Moffat, more than 300 hope, work for reliable EMS

Dinosaur residents feel left out, worry the numbers might not reflect the true need and support their call for a local ambulance

News FOLLOW NEWS | Mar 16, 2022

The EMS Shortage Is Killing Us

"The state of the EMS industry is on the verge of collapse"

By Erin Marquis | Published March 17, 2022 | Comments \(56\) | Alerts

HEALTH

In rural Colorado, ambulance services are stretched thin – a pandemic adds more challenges

Some areas only have one ambulance in service at a time to cover thousands of people and hundreds of square miles.

Rural ambulance crews are running out of money and volunteers. In some places, the fallout could be nobody responding to a 911 call

By Lucy Kananov, CNN

Published 9:57 AM EDT, Sat May 22, 2021

Emergency Medical Services Association of Colorado

